COPIES OF THE GAZETTE OF ALL DISPOSITIONS, notices, promptly and cheaply done at the GAZETTE OFFICE.

THE Alarm, the Chicago organ of Anarchy, has suspended, and the red flag of revolution is replaced by the red flag of the Sheriff, who will probably put the Alarm up at auction. Anarchy is dead in this country. Chicago has the honor of its suppression by faithful enforcement of the law. Its advocates needed only to be taught that the people who made the laws are strong enough to enforce them, and that unlawful acts are not punished here without but within the law. This lesson was taught, and the whole system which but recently was so threatening and defiant has disappeared before the determination of the American people to preserve their institutions from destruction or invasion by the propagandists of foreign lawlessness and crime. The Alarm tried to live by hysterical shrieking about tyrants and martyrs, but its strident voice is smothered in bankruptcy and its supporters will abandon their folly and desert the country for its good or integrate themselves with its law-abiding people.

THE Montreal Gazette claims that the President and his Cabinet have conceded the Canadian interpretation of the Treaty of 1818, and that, if the Senate rejects the Fisheries Treaty, Canada will revert to that of 1818 and rigorously impose those provisions which the United States Government has acknowledged as lawful. The Canadians should bear in mind that the President is only a part of our Government; that the so-called Cabinet is not a Constitutional body, and that Congress will have something to say about the foreign policy of the Republic.

THE government of Victoria, Australia, has ordered that all vessels bringing Chinese to the colony shall be quarantined during the pleasure of the authorities. That is a very effective scheme to make the Mongols unpopular with the lines of transportation. Owners cannot afford to have their vessels laid up indefinitely. There is a metaphorical propriety in quarantining against the Chinese as moral, social and industrial pests.

THE remains of Dr. Alva C. Bishop yesterday were laid away in the Masonic Cemetery of Reno. Attendant upon the obsequies were the Governor, Supreme Judges, nearly all the State officers and many other prominent Nevadans. It is seldom that there is seen in Nevada so many prominent people at the funeral of a private citizen. The honor shown to the deceased is indicative of the high esteem in which the Bishop family is held in Western Nevada.

DISTRICT COURT.
Graf, the slayer of Shannon, to be Admitted to Bail.

The Grand Jury submitted its final report yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and were discharged for the term. Two indictments were found, one against Charles Graf for the murder of Joseph Shannon, and the other against J. C. Bowen for grand larceny.

In the District Court this morning the defendants were duly arraigned. They both entered their plea of not guilty. Colonel Lindsay appears for Graf and W. N. Knox for Bowen. The trials were set for the 31st day of May, Bowen's to follow that of Graf.

Upon the application of Col. Lindsay, the District Attorney consenting thereto, an order was entered admitting Graf to bail in the sum of $5,000.

A Chance to "Play Even."
The Virginia City enthusiasts, who are expected here Sunday to play a match game with the Reno club, will probably meet with a Waterloo at the hands of the latter and go home sadder but wiser players. The Comstock nine is composed of good players, it is true, but the Reno club have secured the services of a battery which have never yet met with defeat and it is extremely probable that the sports of Reno will recuperate the fortunes squandered on Bethune from the lucky Virginians who departed for home last Sunday evening with plethoric pocket books. The chance to "play even" has come sooner than expected.

Auction Sale of Stock.
An auction sale of horses, fillies, mules and cattle will take place at Cohn's ranch, two miles from Genoa on May 15th and 16th. The animals which will be offered for sale are all in first-class condition, and will no doubt attract a large assemblage of lovers of good animals. First-class accommodations can be procured by intending purchasers at Walley's springs, a short distance from the place of sale.

OVER THE WIRES.

THE CHINESE TREATY.

Senator Stewart Introduces a Bill to Execute Its stipulations.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—In the Senate to-day Stewart of Nevada introduced a bill to execute the stipulations of the new Chinese treaty, which was referred. It absolutely prohibits, after 90 days from its passage, the entry of any Chinese laborers or laborers of Chinese descent, wherever they may have been born, excepting only such as were at the time of the treaty in the United States, or who shall come within 90 days thereafter (who may leave the country having a right to return, in pursuance of the terms of the treaty), and such other Chinese laborers as may enter the country for transit across the United States. The last mentioned class are permitted to enter only at the ports of San Diego, San Francisco, Portland (Or.), Boston, New York and New Orleans.

It is made a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for the master of any vessel to bring in any Chinese laborer not fully entitled to entry. The Secretary of the Treasury is empowered to make such regulations as he may see fit to secure the rights of Chinese persons named in Article 2 and 3 of the treaty and protect the United States against the coming and transit of persons not entitled to the benefit of said Articles. He is authorized to prescribe the form of certificates to be issued and to require the deposit of a photograph of the person to whom the certificate is issued. False persons for of the persons named in the certificate is made punishable by not more than $1,000 fine or five years imprisonment. Chinese persons found unlawfully in the United States may be arrested, and upon conviction may be returned where they came from, the expense and proceedings being chargeable against the parties who brought them in. Diplomats and other officers of the Chinese Government are exempted from the operation of the Act. State Courts are prohibited from admitting Chinese to citizenship.

The steamer Queen of the Pacific, which left in 20 feet of water at Fort Harford last Monday morning, was floated to-day and will be taken to San Francisco at once for repairs. The hull of the steamer is uninjured.

BRUTAL HENDERSON.

Reno's Pet Expressman Again Distinguishes Himself.

Henry Henderson, the negro expressman, who ravished little Stella Jose, a fifteen-year-old white girl of this town some time last August and continued his illicit relations with her until her condition became such that he was forced to desist, has again distinguished himself, this time in San Francisco, his victim being his step-daughter, Frances Drake. That he has been able to continue to abuse his step-daughter he has an intelligent jury of this county to thank for, who disagreed when he was tried for the rape of Stella Jose; a merciful Judge who released him from jail on his own recognizance, and several zealous county officials who kindly piloted him to California at night in the fear that indignant citizens would take the case out of the courts; and last, but not least, the poverty-stricken (?) condition of the county treasury, which was the alleged motive for deeming it best not to have a second trial. To this combination of circumstances is the black fiend indebted for his liberty if not his life, and it was a sorry day for the fair fame of Washoe county that punishment swift and sure was not meted out to him.

Little Stella Jose now lies in a lying-in hospital in San Francisco probably hovering between life and death; her family disgraced as long as the memory of the present residents of Washoe county lasts, driven from home—outcasts, Frances Drake, who has acted as a mother to the black-headed scoundrel's little children since the death of their own, also lies in a lying-in hospital in San Francisco, a victim to his lust and brutality. In the face of such facts as the above, a feeling of shame and degradation should overcome those who grasped Henderson by the hand, showering their congratulations upon him, when he passed through Reno a few weeks ago in the livery of a Pullman car porter.

The following from the San Francisco Chronicle of yesterday will no doubt be an additional cause of congratulation to those alluded to when next they see the pet expressman of Reno: "A few months ago a colored man named Henry Henderson, with his four children, the eldest being a step-daughter 14 years old, named Frances Drake, resided near the black-headed scoundrel's little children since the death of their own, also lies in a lying-in hospital in San Francisco, a victim to his lust and brutality. In the face of such facts as the above, a feeling of shame and degradation should overcome those who grasped Henderson by the hand, showering their congratulations upon him, when he passed through Reno a few weeks ago in the livery of a Pullman car porter.

A PLEASANT PICNIC.

The Sisters and Students Enjoy an Outing.

EDITOR GAZETTE—Yesterday a party of about forty, composed of the Sisters and pupils of Mt. St. Mary's Academy, went out for a May-day picnic on the Nevada & California Railroad. We left on the regular passenger train, and although at the time of departure the weather indications were somewhat nebulous, the shower kept behind our train so that the day was just the kind for real pleasure. The convent girls are quite familiar with the scenery and various stations from Reno to Moran, but after leaving the last named station the urban conductor, Charles Taylor, was kept busy giving the names of the various railroad stations and points of interest. About 11:30 Camp Ham was reached and a halt called to allow of freight transfer, after which the merry picnicers were again whirled through smiling valleys, green meadows and along silvery streams until the last tie—was not severed—but in sight. Here at the base of the remarkable Red Rock, all descended from the car. Little companies were soon scattered over the award of grass and wild flowers and delving into the well filled baskets in a manner most natural. This agreeable and necessary part of the picnic over, the juniors and juveniles went out for wild romps on hill and dale in quest of the most beautiful flowers, while the seniors joined the surveying party and helped Mr. Warner to make straight the way for the advance gang. "All aboard!" from Drew Taylor caused a scampering from all sides and at 2 o'clock we were "pushed" back to Camp Ham and soon after found ourselves on the homeward run. Altogether the day was one that will be long and pleasantly remembered by all of the pupils of Mt. St. Mary's Academy. F. H.

That feeling of weariness so often experienced in the spring results from a sluggish condition of the blood which, being impure, does not quicken with the changing season. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by vitalizing and cleansing the blood, strengthens and invigorates the system.

Why cough and suffer with a cold, when Ayer's Sarsaparilla will give immediate relief? (It contains no Opium.) Price, 75 cents. Sold by W. P. Piniger. All genuine Sarsaparilla will bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

The Fashionably Bred Standard Trotting Stallion

MAJESTY!

DESCRIPTION: Color, dark bay with one white hind foot; 15 1/2 hands high, weighs 1,050 pounds, fine form and action, very gentle disposition, sound in every respect; two years old on the 8th of May, 1888; well broken to drive; has never been trained.

PEDIGREE—Sire, "Sterling," by Egmont, he by Belmont, sire of Nutwood, Goldsmith Maid and other fast ones. Dam, Lady Baldwin, by the Moor, dam of Bay Rose, 2:29.

This combination of two of the fastest strains of blood this country has ever produced cannot fail to trot fast, and be one of the most popular breeding stallions to be found. This colt has grown very fast, and is large for his age, but well-proportioned and symmetrical, and has not been worked for speed on account of his rapid growth. He shows enough speed to warrant the belief that he will maintain the high opinion we have of him. The first time he was shown at the California State Fair he took the premium for the

Best Standard-Bred Trotting Colt

In the Sweepstakes. This colt is offered for the sum of $600, which is lower by 50 per cent than any colt of equal breeding ever brought that we know of.

The new stock of goods at Abraham Bros., is going off rapidly, and when you see a man with a neat-fitting, stylish suit of clothes on, it is safe to bet that he got them at the White House clothing emporium.

Miss Fleen's Disclaimers.

Miss Fleen, who is reputed to have been a heavy winner in the Bethune-Mugrove foot-race, published a card in today's Enterprise in which she disclaims all responsibility for the result of the race. He says that ever since the race he has "labored under the frown of men who for years have been my most intimate and dearest friends" and has been "openly accused by them of being concerned in the job to rob them and to lead them into betting on a man whom I knew would lose the race." He then gives a history of the alleged fraud, which he has learned since the race came off, and pathetically announces: "I have lost of my own money $250, which I bet myself, and I have to pay half of nearly $500 bet by my partner." Poor Miss! but how those Carson sports must have chuckled when they read his most pathetic attempt at vindication!

The Stallion Oran.

One of the handsomest stallion card announcements ever produced in the State has been executed by the GAZETTE office for A. T. Rice, owner of the standard stallion Oran. It is 14x28 inches in dimensions, and in the center is a superb photograph of the stallion named which shows him off in such a manner that the most casual observer at once notices the many good points and proportions of the animal. Mr. Rice was so well pleased with the work that he had the photograph painted which increases the effect immensely. Miss Mamie Hayden was the artist, and that she performed her task well, but a glance is required to prove.

Nipped in the Bud.

It is not better to nip consumption, the greatest scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try and stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, Santa Ana, the king of consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by California's Cal-Cure. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by Osburn & Shoemaker at $1, or three for $2.50.

REST AT LAST!

HISTORY OF A BRILLIANT CAREER.

The Well-Spent Life of the Late Dr. A. C. Bishop—A Tribute to His Memory.

The funeral of Dr. Alva C. Bishop, whose death occurred at Butte, Montana, on April 25th, from the effects of a fall received while practicing in a gymnasium, took place yesterday afternoon from Trinity church, and was largely attended by mourning friends and comrades from Virginia City, Carson and Reno. It was conducted under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, of which organization deceased was an honored member, and the services at the church and cemetery were of the most impressive character, the Rev. Wm. Lucas, assisted by Rev. Geo. R. Davis of Carson, officiating.

A special car containing about forty of the most prominent men in the State, arrived from Carson and Virginia City at noon to attend the funeral. Among them were Governor C. C. Stevenson, State Treasurer Tully, Controller Hatlock, Deputy Secretary of State P. B. Ellis, Hon. Frank McCullough and H. E. Bastine, Judges Leonard, Bickley and Hawley, of the Supreme Court, State Printer Harlow; also Ormsby Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W., Carter Post, G. A. R., the members of which followed the remains to the grave.

Among the relatives of the deceased present at the funeral were his wife, two daughters and son; a brother, Hon. W. W. Bishop and wife of San Francisco; another brother, Dr. S. Bishop and family of Reno; two nephews, Dr. O. F. Lee of Marysville, California, and Dr. S. L. Lee, with his family, of Carson City.

The residence of Dr. S. Bishop, whence the procession started, was draped in mourning, including the equestrian steel engraving of General John A. Logan, which stood on the piano at the head of the coffin. The funeral director, General Seeling, to look down upon the dead who once was his subordinate officer on the field of battle. As evidence of the esteem in which the family held General Logan, Dr. S. Bishop, just before the funeral, started in his sorrowful referring to the General and his brother, said: "These are my dead."

The hearse was drawn by four black horses.

The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: General N. P. Bishop, Dr. Thomas Warden Frank J. McCullough and Judge Bigelow, representing the G. A. R.; Hon. C. S. Young, Hon. J. F. Hatlock, Hon. J. E. Jones and W. O. H. Martin.

The funeral cortege was one of the largest that has been seen in Reno for years, the great number present eloquently but silently attesting the great respect and esteem in which the deceased was held by friends and acquaintances.

Trinity Church was rendered beautiful by the many floral tributes of friends and the singing of the choir was very impressive, and many were affected to tears during the rendition of "Nearer My God to Thee."

The coffin was covered with flowers, lilies, bouquets, scikies, stars, shields, wreaths, anchors, etc. James Murray of Butte, an intimate friend of the deceased, ordered from Helena $150 worth of flowers; these accompanied the body through to Reno. Flowers were also sent by numerous friends from San Francisco.

THE BISHOP FAMILY.

The Bishop family, including the deceased, has been most prominent in the early and later history of Nevada and an extended notice of the family and the deceased will be of interest to the public. The brothers of the deceased, Hon. W. W. Bishop, formerly of Eureka, has been a prominent lawyer and politician and not infrequently has his name been mentioned in connection with Congress and the United States Senate, and Dr. S. Bishop is Superintendent of the State Insane Asylum, which position he has held for several years. F. A. Bishop, who was killed at San Bernardino about five years ago by a horse falling upon him, came into this valley in 1848 with Kit Carson, and pioneered it here for many years. The only other immediate members of the family, the sisters, Mrs. Judge Davis of Illinois and Dr. S. L. Lee of Kentucky county, Illinois, were never residents of this State. The husband of the latter, Mrs. F. E. Lee, visited here a few months ago. His nephews, who were as close to him as a brother, are Dr. O. F. Lee of Marysville and Dr. S. L. Lee of Carson City. There is one marked characteristic of this family, so generally known throughout the State, and that is the strong attachments they have for one another. There is among them, socially, politically and otherwise, an unbroken bond of union and such devotion to one another as is seldom seen in families.

SHORT HISTORY OF THE DECEASED.

The deceased was born July 13, 1839, in Fayette county, Illinois. He came to Nevada in 1863, locating at Wadsworth of this county, having two years before graduated in medicine from the Eclectic College at Cincinnati, Ohio. He loved his profession and in 1866 completed a course at Post Graduate College, New York. From the practice of his profession in this county he went to Pioche, afterwards to Eureka, and five years ago to Butte, Montana.

At Butte he had acquired a very large and remunerative practice. On the day of his death he was elected physician of the Montana Copper Company and the Montana Central Railroad at a salary of $1,000 per month.

HIS ARMY RECORD.

A. C. Bishop entered the army as a Corporal in April, 1861, from Vandalia, Illinois, under Lincoln's first call of 75,000 for three months. In July, 1861, he re-enlisted under the call for three years, and as Second Lieutenant of Company H, Eighth Illinois Infantry, under command of Colonel Dick Oglesby, afterwards Major General, United States Senator and now Governor of Illinois. Showing the esteem in which the Governor holds the deceased he said in a public speech some time ago at Vandalia: "Lieutenant Bishop saved my life at the battle of Fort Donelson and was as gallant a soldier as ever put foot upon a battle field." Bishop served with gallantry in the battles of Fort Henry, Donelson, Shiloh, Grand Gulf, Raymond, Champion Hill, Black River Bridge. In the charge upon the works of Vicksburg, on the 22d of May, 1863, at the blowing up of Fort Hill, the Siege of Vicksburg until July 4, 1863, when it surrendered; the battles of Jackson, Mississippi, Clifton, Miss.; the Siege of Spanish Fort, Fish Creek, the Siege and Charge of Blakely, Alabama, at which charge he was the first Federal soldier to mount the rebel works. The company led by himself was the first in the city of Mobile on the 12th day of April, 1865. After the battle of Shiloh he was promoted to the rank of Captain for meritorious conduct.

Like the other members of the family the deceased has been a great admirer of General Logan. He was always fond of the fact that he served under the most popular of American Generals, belonging as he did to the Third Division of the Seventeenth Corps, commanded by Logan.

Among those who were associated with the deceased in the war were his two nephews, James M. Lee and Dr. S. L. Lee. The former lost his life in the ranks of the 8th Illinois Infantry at the battle of Shiloh. Dr. S. L. Lee, who was a member of Captain Bishop's company, takes commendable pride in relating many reminiscences of bravery on the part of his lamented uncle. He says the Captain never knew danger and all ways seemed to seek the place where bullets were thickest. But, strange to say, the only wound he received in the war was a wound in the arm, which he received in the ranks as a soldier, although he was personally present while 105 of his company at different times were killed or wounded, he never received a scratch. At the battle of Raymond General Logan feared he would lose his company. He galloped across the field amidst a shower of bullets from a Texas brigadier. As he did so Captain Bishop, in admiration of the bravery of the fearless commander, slipped out in front of his company, and with his sword in his hand, he cleared the way for him, which resounded along the whole line. It was on this occasion that Logan had his horse shot to death under him, and when almost despairing he yelled to the Colonel of the Eighth Illinois in these words: "For God's sake, command them the blood of the Eighth!" The Eighth responded and the provision train was saved to the Federal troops. On the occasion of his visit to Reno two years ago General Logan mentioned Bishop as one of his most gallant comrades.

In 1863 Bishop was Provost Marshal of Meade, Tennessee; in 1865 appointed Chief of Provost Guard by General Veatch; in the same year also made Provost Marshal at Shreveport, Louisiana, by Major Herron; also held various other important positions in his army service.

By those who know him best Dr. A. C. Bishop was known as a ripe scholar, a genial companion, a gentleman of lofty ideas, and always commanded the confidence and esteem of his friends. When his life went out on last April 25th, a brave and live man ceased to breathe. May his ashes which yesterday, by loving hands, were laid away in the Masonic cemetery here at Reno rest in peace.

"Soldier, rest! thy war is over,
Dream of fight and fight no more;
Sleep the sleep that knows no breaking,
Morn of toil, nor night of waking."

In Memorial:

On yesterday the clouds of the valley fell upon the mortal remains of the lamented Dr. Alva C. Bishop, and sorrowing relatives and friends returned from the cemetery with memories of his good deeds only to cheer them in their grief. Their sorrow will find an echo throughout Nevada's hills wherever he was known, and silent tears will trickle down the cheeks of hosts of hardy pioneers who knew him, in the vigor of his manhood, as a brave soldier and kind-hearted friend. He will be remembered by the many who knew him, and his kindly smile cheered the afflicted, and left a universal beam of sunshine in his path, and of him it may well be said by all who knew him:

"Such a true friend—turned on the good old plan,
A true and brave, and down-right honest man!
He knew no trumpet in the market place,
Nor in the church with hypocritical grace.
Supplied with cant the lack of Christian grace.
Loathing pretense, he did with cheerful will.
What others talked of while their hands were still.
His daily prayer, far better understood.
In acts than words, was simply doing good;
So calm, so constant was his rectitude,
That by his loss alone we knew his worth,
And felt how true a man had walked with us on earth."

Why It Is?

The editor of the White Pine News thus moralizes: When a new town is growing, all the male inhabitants of the place can drink at the same bar but they must have at least five different kinds of chairs to accommodate those of different creeds. This peculiarity shows that religion is divided where sin is united, and the match is unequal.

It is said the Emeralds delegation will be solid for Murphy for Supreme Judge.

The Tribune says if the young Republicans of Ormsby are not consulted by "the powers that be" there will be trouble in the camp.

There are said to be four candidates in the Republican ranks for the office of District Attorney of this county. So far no aspirant among the Democrats has materialized.

Senators Jones and Stewart should be selected as delegates to the National Republican Convention. With two such stalwarts working under the banner of Nevada, our State would have a representation equal to any of her sisters.

The primary election for delegates to the Republican State Convention, held in Tuva ora, Elko county, on Saturday, resulted in the election of A. J. Bender, D. B. Williams, George E. Bird, J. F. Parsous and John W. Powell. Although there was no strife to call forth the strength of the party, the vote was 190.—Times-Review.

In commenting on Woodburn's withdrawal from the Congressional race, the Carson Appeal says: "This opens the doors to numerous candidates—in fact makes the coming issue hinge on the Congressional race. Prof. C. S. Young and Hon. C. C. Powning of Washoe will loom up in consequence. Squalls will be no name for discomfitures, and many states will be broken when this intelligence reaches their builders. Gresham is the favorite here for President, — for Congress, and, sure as fate, Leonard for Judge."

Dr. Prentice.

Dr. Prentice is now in Reno at the Lake House, where he will remain for one week only, until May 7th. When here last year he straightened a great many cross-eyes, which have remained perfect. He performs the operation so neatly that he causes practically no pain. It never requires the doctor a minute to straighten an eye. His success with diseases of the eye and ear when here last was so remarkable that it ought to gain the confidence of all persons afflicted with any of these diseases. Many of the people treated last by Dr. Prentice, were prominent citizens and do not wish to have their names appear in public. The following are a few who have given us permission to mention their cases:

George Keifer, both eyes crossed, were straightened in less than one minute. His photographs before and after the operation were taken one hour apart. They can be seen at the Lake House.

Also, James Coutin, cross-eyed 15 years, made straight in 30 seconds. John Corbin, cross-eyed, made straight. Miss J. Elkin made handsome in 45 seconds.

SHE SAID SHE WOULD SCREAM.

Hearing of the remarkable operations being daily performed by Dr. Prentice, our reporter called up, and arrived just in time to be introduced to Miss Agnes Reedy, whose mother lives on the corner of 19th and Eureka streets. The Doctor was about to straighten her crossed eyes, which turned outward instead of inward. The young lady emphatically declared to Dr. Prentice that she would scream just as hard as she could. She failed to scream, as the operation was successfully accomplished before she was aware of the fact. The time was forty-five seconds by our reporter's watch. Upon arising from her chair Miss Reedy exclaimed, "Why, I would rather have my eye straightened again than have a tooth pulled."

DEAFNESS CURED.

Madame Emma Seaman, the widow of the late Baron H. Seaman, has been deaf for some time; could not hear a word when pressed hard against the ear. She has been under Dr. Prentice's treatment for only two weeks, and can now hear the same watch three feet from the ear. She is not only delighted but greatly astonished at the speedy and perfect results of Dr. Prentice's treatment. The Doctor says the cause of the deafness was catarrh of the internal ear. Mrs. Seaman will be pleased to answer any questions concerning her case at 132 Fourth St., San Francisco.

Chat Roberts cured of deafness. Many more cases could be referred to but space forbids. Those wishing to see the Doctor should do so at once as he will remain in Reno until May 7th only.
